The Delphi Opera House Art Enrichment Program is offering three exciting opportunities. Read the descriptions below and sign up to attend. All are FREE!

The Setting for Our Dreams:

A Musical Celebration of Pioneer Indiana

for Middle and High School students ~ Tuesday, November 25 1:30-2:30 pm

In her original production, Audrey Johnson brings Indiana's Pioneer Era to life, using her signature Of Thee I Sing combination of historical songs and images, an interactive narrative, LOTS of audience participation, and 8+ onstage costume transformations!

From early migration and agriculture to the Wabash & Erie Canal and the railroads, audiences learn about Indiana's Pioneer Era in an immersive and entertaining way. They also learn about the hero qualities of our Pioneer ancestors: qualities that live on within each of us.

An Irish Immigrant's Song: The Celtic Influx

for upper elementary through high school ~ Friday, December 5 1:30-2:30 pm

Barry Cloyd, who will be performing A Celtic Christmas at the Opera House December 6th, is bringing this edu-taining program for youth on Friday, Dec 5th. Be transported to the mid-1800s, at the time of the Irish Potato Famine, when the Mid-West was the western frontier of America. The influx of Celtic/Irish people literally changed the face of America as they arrived seeking freedom and work on the great construction projects of the era. Their presence and stories still impact our lives today. Through story and song, Cloyd presents the history and heart of the Celtic people who came to the Mid-West in search of liberty and opportunity.

A MUSICAL CELEBRATION OF PIONEER INDIANA

Program Highlights:

- The roles of rivers and railroads in Pioneer Indiana commerce and transportation
- Agriculture's importance to Indiana's early development
- The origins of settlers that created Indiana's unique culture
- Life as an Indiana Pioneer kid!

“Engaging, entertaining, and educational!”

Audrey Johnson has cleverly woven song and narrative into a delightful presentation for young audiences.

The performance meets Indiana's Academic Standards and encourages further research of historical eras.”
